1 1. MEMORANDUM OF POINTS & AUTHORITIES

3 On 11-8-2017, the Debtor Pandora Hospice Care, Inc., commenced this bankruptcy

5 On 10-2-2018, Plaintiff filed this adversary action entitled: Karl T. Anderson against Nicholas
6 Silao, Adversary case 6:18-ap-01193 [Doc-1]

7 On 10-31-2018, Defendant, represented by Sanaz S. Bereliani filed an Answer to the 8 Complaint [Doc-4].

9 On 1-2-2019, the parties filed a Joint Status Report [Doc-5]. Of particular interest, in Section
10 A4 of the Joint Status Report the parties acknowledged that they did not meet & confer pursuant to 11 LBR 7026-1.¹

12 Pursuant to the Status Conference and Scheduling Order Pursuant to LBR 7016-1(a)(4) [Doc-13 10], the discovery cutoff was 6-28-2019, the pre-trial stipulation was due 8-1-2019, the pretrial 14 hearing was 8-15-2019, and the mediation completion date was 7-31-2019.

15 On 3-15-2019, Defendant's counsel Bereliani moved to withdraw as counsel of record [Doc-
16 12], and on 4-16-2019, the Court entered its Order Granting Motion To Withdraw As Counsel Of 17 Record [Doc-16].

18 On 8-7-2019 at 10:42am, Defendant wrote Bereliani (copying Cohen) and demanded his file
19 from her pursuant to the California Rule of Professional Responsibility 4-100(B)4, that provides that 20 an attorney must promptly pay or deliver, as requested by the client, any funds, securities, or other 21 properties in the possession of the member which the client is entitled to receive.²

22 On 8-7-2019, at 2:18pm, Bereliani wrote back: " Not much - Nick went MIA on us shortly after 23 the beginning and we just bought him time with the Tee's attorney... " and sent the following 12

9 adversary? If so, please send them."⁴

10 On 8-8-20189 at 8:216am, Berliani responded: "Per my previous email, there was no
11 communication by your client so no nothing further was done. They retained me on a limited scope 12 and were not in touch after with further instruction or guidance. I recommend calling Trustees counsel
13 regarding case status, I'm surprised they haven't filed anything else yet. Nick got lucky."⁵

14 On 8-9-2019, Defendant retained litigation counsel Baruch Cohen to defend him in this action,
15 who then filed the Substitution of Attorney [Doc-25] on 8-12-2019

17 they received any discovery from Plaintiff in this adversary, whether they received a proposed Joint 18 Pre-Trial from Plaintiff, & whether they received any FRCP 26 Initial Disclosures from Plaintiff.
19 While Ms. Bereliani withdrew from the case in 4-16-2019, Cohen still inquired of her too, just in case.

5 RFA # 4. The Debtor loaned/transferred $137,000 to Defendant, Nicholas Silao. The Debtor's
6 2016 Federal Income Tax Returns signed under penalty of perjury reflected the outstanding loan owed
7 by Defendant, Nicholas Silao to the Corporate Debtor. (Unresponded to Request for Admission No.
8 1).

9 RFA # 5. Pursuant to the Debtor's 2016 Federal Income Tax Returns, Defendant, Nicholas
10 Silao owes the Plaintiff/Chapter 7 Trustee no less than $137,000, plus any and all costs of collection.
11 (Unresponded to Request for Admission No. 4).

12 RFA # 6. Plaintiff/Chapter 7 Trustee is entitled to pre-judgment interest as provided under 13 applicable non-bankruptcy law (Unresponded to Request for Admission No. 5).

14 RFA # 7. Defendant, Nicholas Silao has no defenses and/or counterclaims to Plaintiff/Chapter 15 7 Trustee's demand for $137,000. (Unresponded to Request for Admission No. 6).

16 RFA # 8. Defendant, Nicholas Silao has no facts that dispute Plaintiff/Chapter 7 Trustee's 17 entitlement to $137,000 demanded in the Trustee's Complaint. (Unresponded to Request for 18 Admission No. 7).

19 RFA # 9. Defendant, Nicholas Silao has no documents, notes or other writings that disputes
20 the Trustee's entitlement to $137,000 demanded in the Trustee's Complaint. (Unresponded to Request 21 for Admission No. 8).

22 RFA # 10. Defendant, Nicholas Silao has no witnesses that dispute the Trustee's entitlement
23 to $137,000 demanded in the Trustee's Complaint. (Unresponded to Request for Admission No. 9).⁶

24 On 8-9-2019 at 6:34am, Cohen wrote Berliani informing her that Plaintiff's Unilateral Pretrial
25 stated that he indeed propounded discovery Request for Admissions ("RFA's") to the Defendant, that

27 _____
28 ⁶A true and correct copy of Plaintiff's 8-8-2019 Unilateral Pretrial & Declaration is attached hereto as Exhibit "6" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

1 Defendant did not respond to, and that they are now deemed admitted. Cohen asked Berliani why
2 wasn't Cohen given copies of this discovery?"⁷

3 On 8-9-2019 at 12:17pm, Berliani responded: "Ps I'll speak to my office regarding receipts
4 of anything on their end but please note we were retained specifically for an answer and joint status
5 report and conference. We had no further involvement or guidance. Lastly, I appreciate your 6 professionalism going forward."

7 On Friday 8-9-2019 at 11:22am, Cohen wrote Plaintiff's counsel to meet & confer regarding 8 Plaintiff's Unilateral Pre Trial [Doc-23] and Declaration [Doc-24] in advance of the upcoming Pre
9 Trial hearing of 8-22-2019.⁸

10 Specifically, Cohen asked Plaintiff's counsel: (1) to see Plaintiff's F.R.C.P. 26 Initial 11 Disclosures; (2) to See Plaintiff's Discovery; (3) to show Plaintiff that Defendant has evidence to 12 dispute Plaintiff's turnover claim for $137,000.00; & (4) to seek clarification regarding Plaintiff's
13 efforts to meet & confer with Defendant regarding the Joint Pre-Trial Report.

14 On Sunday 8-11-2019, Plaintiff's counsel emailed Cohen stating: "Thanks for your email.
15 Please know I will not litigate this matter via email, thus if you believe your client is entitled to relief
16 from the Court, please file a properly noticed motion pursuant to the Local Bankruptcy Rules.
17 Consequently, at this point we are proceeding in the ordinary course pursuant to the Court's
18 presently set scheduling order. Finally, if you intend to proceed with any type of judicial relief, please 19 note I'll be traveling to and from Shanghai China for my son's college freshman activities between 20 the afternoon of August 22 and returning to the OC on or about August 29, 2019, thus we will object
21 to any relief that requires my office to take action during that time period. Thank you."⁹

22 This was a strange response to my meet & confer letter of 8-9-2019 for the following reasons:
23

24 ⁷A true and correct copy of Cohen's 8-9-2019 letter to Berliani is attached hereto as Exhibit
25 "7" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

26 ⁸A true and correct copy of Cohen's 8-9-2019 meet & confer letter to Plaintiff's counsel is 27 attached hereto as Exhibit "8" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

28 ⁹A true and correct copy of Plaintiff's counsel's email of 8-11-2019 is attached hereto as Exhibit "9" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

1 1. Regarding Cohen's simple request to see Plaintiff's F.R.C.P. 26 Initial Disclosures, Cohen
2 asked counsel whether he met & conferred and served the Defendant, with Plaintiff's F.R.C.P. 26
3 Initial Disclosures, and if he did, to please send Cohen a copy, because as the Court knows, F.R.C.P.
4 26(d)(1) prohibits discovery before the parties have met & conferred as required by F.R.C.P. 26(f).
5 Further, as the Court knows, F.R.C.P. § 26(a)(1)© requires a plaintiff to make the initial disclosures
6 at or within 14 days after the parties' Rule 26(f) conference. In Plaintiff's 1-2-2019 Status Conference
7 Report [Doc-5], Section A4 of the Joint Status Report the parties acknowledged that they did not
8 meet & confer pursuant to LBR 7026-1, and Plaintiff pledged to meet and confer by 1-17-2019.
9 Plaintiff's Initial Disclosures were due by 1-31-2019. So Cohen inquired whether Plaintiff met &
10 conferred before or after the 1-17-2019 date. So Cohen merely asked to see Plaintiff's compliance 11 with his F.R.C.P. 26 Disclosures requirement. To Cohen's surprise, rather than simply send them to 12 Cohen, Plaintiff stonewalled me with his non-response of 8-11-2019. So Cohen had no copy of 13 Plaintiff's F.R.C.P. 26 Initial Disclosures to work from.

14 2. Regarding Cohen's simple request to see Plaintiff's discovery, Cohen informed Plaintiff 15 that Defendant informed Cohen that he does not recall receiving any discovery from Plaintiff, let 16 alone RFA's, and inquired whether Plaintiff's discovery was propounded before or after the 6-28-2019
17 Discovery Cutoff date? And if so, to please provide Cohen with copies of the propounded discovery
18 so that Cohen can respond to them. Cohen also asked that Plaintiff stipulate to withdraw the deemed 19 status and allow Defendant to respond to them. To Cohen's surprise, rather than simply send them 20 to Cohen, Plaintiff stonewalled Cohen with his non-response of 8-11-2019. So Cohen did not have 21 a copy of Plaintiff's discovery to work from.

22 3. Regarding Cohen's simple request for clarification regarding Plaintiff's efforts to meet &
23 confer with Defendant regarding the Joint Pre-Trial Report, Cohen reported to counsel that his 24 Declaration in support of the Unilateral Pre Trial states that "On or about July 22, 2019, I called the 25 telephone number listed on the adversary proceeding docket's cover page and left a message, but no
26 return call; or email was received by Defendant Nicholas Silao," and that Defendant informed Cohen
27 that he does not recall receiving any such telephone call from Plaintiff. Cohen expressed to counsel
28

1 concern with Plaintiff's claim of a 7-22-2019 telephone call, because as the Court is aware, LBR
2 7016-1(b)(1)© requires that the parties must meet and confer at least 28 days before the date set for 3 pretrial conference, the pretrial hearing was 8-22-2019, and the 28-day meet & confer deadline was 4 7-5-2019, meaning that Plaintiff's attempted meet & confer of 7-22-2019 was not timely.

5 Cohen expressed to Plaintiff his additional concern with why his declaration fails to state that 6 he emailed the proposed Joint Pre Trial to Defendant that is listed in the Order Granting Bereliani's
7 Motion to Withdraw as Counsel of Record [Doc-16] and in the PACER docket nsilao@aol.com?

8 Cohen expressed to Plaintiff his additional concern with Plaintiff's Declaration in support of 9 the Unilateral Pre Trial that states: "On or about July 29, 2019, my office sent Defendant Nicholas
10 Silao at the address listed on the adversary proceeding docket via Federal Express delivery the Joint 11 PreTrial Stipulation." Cohen informed counsel that Defendant claims and insists that he does not 12 recall receiving any such Joint Pre Trial Stipulation, and Cohen requested that Plaintiff provide Cohen
13 with his 7-29-2019 letter, the FEDEX slip, and the proposed JPS of 7-29-2019. To Cohen's surprise, 14 rather than simply send them to Cohen, Plaintiff stonewalled him with his non-response of 8-11-2019.
15 So Cohen has no copy of Plaintiff's Joint Pretrial that he allegedly sent to work from.

16 Regarding the last point of Cohen's letter to demonstrate that Defendant has evidence to 17 dispute Plaintiff's turnover claim for $137,000.00, that he has witnesses and exhibits re same, Cohen
18 produced these documents to counsel sight unseen, without the Plaintiff having to formally demand
19 them from Defendants to substantiate Defendant's claim that he has exhibits to support his defense:

20 RFA # 4. The Debtor did not lend $137,000 to Defendant. The facts will reveal just the 21 opposite: My client lent Pandora $442, 00.00.

22 RFA # 5. Defendant does not owe the Plaintiff $137,000 (plus any and all costs of collection).

23 RFA # 6. Plaintiff is not entitled to pre-judgment interest as provided under applicable
24 non-bankruptcy law.

25 RFA # 7. Defendant, Nicholas Silao has defenses to Plaintiff's demand for $137,000, as raised 26 in Defendant's Answer [Doc-4]. Again, the Debtor did not lend $137,000 to Defendant. The facts will 27 reveal just the opposite: My client lent Pandora $442, 00.00.

28

1 RFA # 8. Defendant has facts that dispute Plaintiff's entitlement to $137,000 demanded in the 2 Trustee's Complaint.

3 RFA # 9. Defendant has documents, notes or other writings that dispute the Plaintiff's
4 entitlement to $137,000 demanded in the Trustee's Complaint.

5 Regarding the exhibits, Cohen presented to Plaintiff:

6 Pandora's loan report to the Silao brothers reflecting that during the period of 12-16-2013 -
7 5-20-2015, Defendant lent Pandora approximately $442,000.00 (and that his brothers Michael Silao
8 lent Pandora $70,000.00, Sam Silao lent Pandora $6,000.00, & Ray Silao lent Pandora $143,911.37,

- 10 ix. Pandora's 12-2-2015 check # 8655 to Defendant for $25,000.00 contains the 12 Regarding the witnesses, I disclosed to counsel:

13 RFA # 10. Defendant has witnesses that dispute the Trustee's entitlement to $137,000
14 demanded in the Trustee's Complaint: Defendant; the other Silao brothers; Pandora's CPA Rufino
15 Reyes Magpayo.

16 Cohen's letter recommended that the parties push "reset" on this case: (1) so that Plaintiff can 17 provide Cohen with all of the above-requested documents; (2) to stipulate to withdraw the deemed 18 admissions; (3) to allow Defendant to respond to Plaintiff's discovery; (4) to allow Defendant to 19 participate meaningfully to the Joint Pre Trial report; & (5) to stipulate to continue the pre-trial to a 20 mutually agreeable date. Cohen concluded that he believes that the Court would prefer to try the case
21 on the merits rather than granting the Plaintiff defaults against an in pro per defendant based on the 22 above. Cohen was even so bold as to suggest that since Plaintiff's case appears to be solely predicated
23 on a 2016 tax return, that upon Plaintiff verifying the Defendant's evidence, that the Plaintiff consider 24 dismissing this adversary complaint. Cohen truly believed he was being completely reasonable and 25 practical, given the situation that he found himself in. Cohen's requests to see Plaintiff's Initial 26 Disclosures, Discovery, and proof of his meet & confer compliance, are completely legitimate, not 27 being made for any improper⁴ purpose. One would think, that a Plaintiff would agree to produce the 28

1 aforementioned and stipulate to continue the pretrial - especially in light of his late compliance with 2 LBR 7016-1(b)(1)© - to allow the defendant to participate meaningfully in his defense. Instead, and
3 to Cohen's surprise, rather than simply send them to Cohen, Plaintiff stonewalled him with his non-4 response of 8-11-2019.

5 On 9-4-2019, Cohen wrote Plaintiff again. " am writing you to meet & confer regarding: (1)
6 the proposed Joint Pre Trial Stipulation; (2) the proposed Motion in Limine, & (3) the proposed 7 Motion to Withdraw the Deemed Admissions pursuant to F.R.C.P. § 36(b). As I wrote you on 8 8-9-2019, I'm running blind here, because I do not have: (1) Plaintiff's F.R.C.P. 26 Initial
9 Disclosures; & (2) Plaintiff's written discovery including Plaintiff's Request for Admissions
10 ("RFA's"). Both Ms. Bereliani and my client informed me that they do not have copies of them.
11 Accordingly, please provide them to me. If I do not receive them from you, I will have no choice but 12 to file the proposed motions. As I indicated in Defendant's 8-12-2019 Unilateral Pre-Trial Report
13 [Doc-28], Defendant intends to file a Motion in Limine to exclude Plaintiff's evidence at trial, based 14 on Plaintiff's failures to comply with FRCP 26. Your cooperation in providing me with the requested
15 documents will impact greatly on whether I will file the Motion in Limine or not. I also indicated that 16 Defendant intends to file a Motion to Withdraw the Deemed Admissions pursuant to F.R.C.P. § 36(b), 17 based on my client's representation that he never received Plaintiff's (alleged) Request for 18 Admissions. Please advise if Plaintiff will stipulate to withdraw the deemed admissions and I will 19 gladly prepare the stipulation and order. To expedite the process, enclosed please find Defendant's
20 Verified Response to Request for Admissions that is based on Plaintiff's Unilateral PreTrial Report
21 that identified the six (6) Requests for Admission.¹⁰

22 On 9-11-2019, Plaintiff responded: "Baruch, I never received a response from you last week
23 regarding the Meet and Confer issues noted in your 9/4/11 faxed letter. I had proposed a "Meet and

7 questions or comments, please let me know. thanks." Plaintiff attached a copy of an RFA.¹¹

8 On 9-11-2019, Cohen responded: "Tom: I do not recall you proposing, and me accepting, a 9 proposed meet & confer with me on 9-6-2019. But I'm happy to do so immediately. I also want to 10 state emphatically, that Berliani did not share your RFA with me, and that Nick Silao swears over a 11 stack of bibles that he never received them. Finally, I need to see your Initial Disclosures. As I'm sure
12 you know, F.R.C.P. 26(d)(1) prohibits discovery before the parties have met & conferred as required
13 by F.R.C.P. 26(f). If you did not do a F.R.C.P. 26 Initial Disclosure, the RFA's would be improper.
14 If you did do a F.R.C.P. 26 Initial Disclosure, please provide it to me. I've now asked you for this 15 twice."¹²

16 On 9-11-2019 Cohen wrote Berliani informing her that Plaintiff sent Cohen an RFA that 17 purports to have been served on her office on 3-7-2019 at your address "Sanaz S. Bereliani, Bereliani
18 Law Firm, 11400 W. Olympic Blvd., Suite 200, Los Angeles, CA 90064. On 3-15-2019, she moved 19 to withdraw as counsel to Defendant. So she must have had the 3-7-2019 RFA's in her file before she 20 moved to withdraw on 3-15-2019. Yet, she did not produce it to Defendant or to Cohen in violation
21 of Rule 4-100(b)(4). Cohen was very concerned that she had this RFA in her file and did not produce
22 it when Defendant demanded it. So Cohen asked her again: "Did Plaintiff send you Plaintiff's FRCP

24 ¹¹A true and correct copy of Plaintiff's counsel's email of 9-11-2019 is attached hereto as 25 Exhibit "11" and is incorporated herein by this reference. While Defendant's counsel would not 26 accuse Plaintiff's counsel of forging the Request for Admission, one can easily be generated, and backdated, without any independent way of verifying that it is authentic. Of particular note is that Plaintiff presented no proof that the RFA was actually mailed to Berliani.

27 ¹²A true and correct copy of Cohen's 9-11-2019 letter to Plaintiff is attached hereto as Exhibit
28 "12" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

1 26 Initial Disclosures? If so, please send it. Was any discovery done in this adversary? If so, please
2 send them." Cohen was very concerned that now the RFA's are deemed admitted, and Defendant will 3 now have to spend money to file a Motion to have the Deemed Admissions Withdrawn, which he
4 should not have to do, had she forwarded to him the RFA's when you received it on 3-7-2019.¹³

5 On 9-12-2019, Cohen spoke with Berliani, who represented that the only documents she had 6 in her file were those that she forwarded to Cohen earlier. When pressed again whether she had the 7 RFA in her file and whether she had Plaintiff's FRCP 26 Initial Disclosures, she repeated again, that 8 the only documents she had in her file were those that she forwarded to Cohen earlier.

9 On 9-17-2019, Cohen wrote Plaintiff's counsel to meet & confer and sent him a Proposed
10 Joint Stipulation in Connection with Defendant's Motion to Allow Withdrawal of Deemed Admissions
11 F.R.C.P. § 36(B) ("Proposed Joint Stipulation").¹⁴

12 On 9-17-2019, Plaintiff's counsel wrote back declining to participate in the Proposed Joint 13 Stipulation.¹⁵

14 Bottom line, Plaintiff has still not produced to Cohen Plaintiff's FRCP 26 Initial Disclosures
15 that would have entitled him to conduct discovery, despite being asked for this document at least two 16 times.

17 b. LEGAL ARGUMENT

18 i. THE DEEMED ADMISSIONS ARE PROPERLY WITHDRAWN

19 Defendant maintains that he never received Plaintiff's alleged Request for Admissions.
20 Plaintiff's counsel refuses to produce them to Defendant.

21 Nevertheless, as soon as Defendant learned of the RFA's he responded to it, and denied them

1 substantively and produced the evidence to support those denials. Under applicable law: If a matter
2 is not admitted, the answer must specifically deny it or state in detail why the answering party cannot 3 truthfully admit or deny it. A denial must fairly respond to the substance of the matter; and when good
4 faith requires that a party qualify an answer or deny only a part of a matter, the answer must specify
5 the part admitted and qualify or deny the rest. The answering party may assert lack of knowledge or 6 information as a reason for failing to admit or deny only if the party states that it has made reasonable 7 inquiry and that the information it knows or can readily obtain is insufficient to enable it to admit or 8 deny. F.R.C.P. § 36(a)(4).

9 Despite the self-executing nature of Rule 36 with regard to the automatic admission of 10 untimely responses, the Ninth Circuit has long recognized the district court's discretion to permit late 11 responses to requests for admission. See, e.g., French v. United States, 416 F.2d 1149, 1152 (9th 12 Cir. 1968) ("A trial judge has discretion to permit a late response to a request for admissions made 13 pursuant to [Rule 36], and thus relieve a party of apparent default.") The language of Rule 36(a)
14 provides a court with discretion to extend the time for responding to requests for admissions, even 15 after the time to respond has expired. Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a)(3) ("A shorter or longer time for 16 responding may be stipulated to under Rule 29 or be ordered by the court.").

17 Discretion also requires the Court to examine competing factors and interests. The Court must 18 weigh the public policy favoring the disposition of cases on their merits rather than on technical 19 violations of procedural rules, consider the scope and purpose of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 20 and assess the particular circumstances presented. Defendant asserts that if the RFAs are deemed 21 admitted the result is essentially a case-terminating sanction as the RFAs eviscerate Defendant's case
22 and will prevent the matter from being decided on the merits. The Ninth Circuit has repeatedly held,
23 in a variety of procedural contexts, that the public policy favoring disposition of cases on their merits
24 strongly counsels against dismissal of a case or sanctions that are ultimately case-terminating. See, 25 e.g., In re Phenylpropanolamine Prods. Liab. Litig., 460 F.3d 1217, 1228 (9th Cir. 2006).

26 Further, the Rules of Civil Procedure explicitly counsel that the rules are to "be construed and 27 administered to secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every action and 28

1 proceeding." Fed. R. Civ. P. 1. Here, the responses were done at the first opportunity once Defendant
2 learned of them. Allowing a technical violation of this nature to drive the resolution of the matter
3 essentially deprives Defendant of a merits-based decision. Construing Rule 36 in this manner would 4 not comport with the scope and purpose of the Rules.

5 Beyond this, even assuming that Defendant is incorrect in his assertion that the admissions 6 are

7 case-terminating, the circumstances of this case weigh in favor relieving Defendant of his late
8 responses. Allowing Defendant to respond to the RFAs can be construed as an agreement to waive 9 the original untimeliness.

10 When undertaking a prejudice inquiry under Rule 36(b), district courts should focus on the 11 prejudice that the nonmoving party would suffer at trial." Sonoda v. Cabrera, 255 F.3d 1035, 1039-40
12 (9th Cir. 2001, where the court granted the motion to withdraw the admissions because it was made 13 before trial and the propounding party would not have been hindered in presenting its evidence. The 14 Ninth Circuit has held that "reliance on a deemed admission in preparing a summary judgment motion
15 does not constitute prejudice." Conlon, 474 F.3d at 623. The Ninth Circuit likewise concluded that 16 when deemed admissions resulted in another party choosing not to engage in other discovery, it did 17 not amount to prejudice. It specifically noted that under those circumstances, the district court has the 18 option of re-opening the discovery.

19 Courts have stressed that a deemed admission can only be withdrawn or amended by motion
20 in accordance with F.R.C.P. § 36(b). American Auto., 930 F.2d at 1120. In order to allow withdrawal
21 of a deemed admission, F.R.C.P. § 36(b) requires that a trial court find that withdrawal or amendment:
22 1) would serve the presentation of the case on its merits, but 2) would not prejudice the party that 23 obtained the admissions in its presentation of the case. American Auto., 930 F.2d at 1119 (citations 24 Omitted); F.R.C.P. § 36(b). Even when these two factors are established, a district court still has 25 discretion to deny a request for leave to withdraw or amend an admission. United States v. Kasuboski, 26 834 F.2d 1345, 1350 n. 7 (7th Cir. 1987) ("[R]ule 36(b) allows withdrawal of admissions if certain 27 conditions are met and the district court, in its discretion, permits the withdrawal."); Donovan v. Carls
28

1 Drug Co., Inc., 703 F.2d 650, 652 (2d Cir. 1983) ("Because the language of [Rule 36(b)] is
2 permissive, the court is not required to make an exception to Rule 36 even if both the merits and the 3 prejudice issues cut in favor of the party seeking exception to the rule.").

4 Two requirements, therefore, must be met before an admission may be withdrawn: (1) 5 presentation of the merits of the action must be subserved, and (2) the party who obtained the 6 admission must not be prejudiced by the withdrawal. Both requirements are met here. Defendant has 7 presented his defenses to this lawsuit on 8-9-2019, Defendant has sent Plaintiff his response to the 8 RFA's, and Plaintiff cannot possibly claim that he has been prejudiced by the withdrawal, especially 9 in light of the fact that Plaintiff failed to prove that he first served Initial Disclosures in the case.

10 Defendant has shown that the proposed response to admissions are contrary to the record or 11 that circumstances relating to the deemed admissions. More importantly, Defendant had no earlier
12 opportunity to submit his responses to Plaintiff's discovery requests - because he never received them
13 and because his former lawyer never sent them to him. Defendant seized the opportunity to respond 14 to them as soon as he learned of them.

15 Accordingly, permitting withdrawal of Defendant's deemed admissions would promote the 16 presentation of the merits of case, as the admissions constitute competent evidence capable of 17 defeating the Plaintiff's claim.

ii. PLAINTIFF'S DISCOVERY IS PREMATURE UNDER THE FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Under F.R.C.P. § 26(d)(1), discovery is not permitted without a court order prior to a conference between the parties as required by F.R.C.P. § 26(f). AF Holdings LLC v. DOES 1-96, 2011 WL 4502413 (N.D. Cal. 2011); See also, F.R.C.P. § 26(d)(1) (“A party may not seek discovery from any source before the parties have conferred as required by Rule 26(f), except in a proceeding exempted from initial disclosure under F.R.C.P. § 26(a)(1)(B), or when authorized by these rules, by stipulation, or by court order.”) “By its express terms, Rule 26(d) bars discovery until after the parties have conferred about a discovery plan as directed by Rule 26(f).” Riley v. Walgreen Co., 233 F.R.D. 496, 498 (S.D. Tex. 2005). “Rule 26(d)’s proscription sweeps broadly: not only may a party

1 not ‘serve’ discovery, it may not even ‘seek’ discovery from any source until after the Rule 26(f)
2 conference.” Id. at 499.2 A Rule 26(f) scheduling conference has not been held, and discovery is not
3 yet open. See Xcentric Ventures, LLC v. Richeson, 2010 WL 5276950 (D. Ariz. 2010) (holding that 4 prior to a Rule 26(f) conference, a request for discovery was propounded “before the Federal Rules
5 of Civil Procedure permitted [the plaintiff] to do so.”) Accordingly, Plaintiff’s efforts to obtain 6 discovery, formally or informally, are premature.

7 If Plaintiff actually issued Initial Disclosures, he should have simply produced a copy to 8 Cohen upon requesting it two times. Instead, Plaintiff stonewalled and refused to produce it. By virtue
9 of Plaintiff’s refusal to show that he indeed actually issued Initial Disclosures, we are left to conclude
10 that he did not, and therefore the RFA’s are premature and unauthorized. The Court cannot deem them 11 admitted accordingly.

12 Pursuant to LBR 7026-1(c)(2), Defendant met and conferred with Plaintiff at least twice trying 13 to resolve this simple discovery matter (to no avail).

14 Pursuant to LBR 7026-1(c)(3), the Proposed Joint Stipulation is attached to this motion.

15 iii. SANCTIONS ARE PROPERLY AWARDED TO DEFENDANT

16 Pursuant to LBR 7026-1(c)(4), Cooperation of Counsel; Sanctions. The failure of any counsel
17 either to cooperate in this procedure, to attend the meeting of counsel, or to provide the moving party
18 the information necessary to prepare the stipulation required by this rule within 7 days of the meeting
19 of counsel will result in the imposition of sanctions, including the sanctions authorized by F.R.B.P.
20 7037 and LBR 9011-3.

21 This Court can impose sanctions under its inherent power. Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32, 22 45-46 (1991).

23 “Congress impliedly recognized that bankruptcy courts have the inherent power to 24 sanction that Chambers recognized exists within Article II courts.” In re Rainbow 25 Magazine, 77 F.3d 278 (9th Cir. 1996) (sanctions under the Court’s inherent power are 26 permitted if “preceded by a finding of bad faith, or conduct tantamount to bad faith,” such as recklessness “combined with an additional factor such as frivolousness, harassment, or an improper purpose”); Fink v. Gomez, 239 F.3d 989, 994 (9th Cir.
2001); Gomez v. Vernon, 255 F.3d 1118, 1134 (9th Cir. 2001).

27 iv. MONEY SANCTIONS ARE PROPERLY AWARDED TO DEFENDANT

1 Reasonable attorney's fees and costs against a party and/or his counsel have been awarded
2 under the judiciary's inherent power in a number of circumstances, including where a party:
3 (1) fabricates evidence. Dollar Systs. v. Avcar Leasing Sys., 890 F.2d 165, 175-76 (9th Cir.1989),
4 (losing party's attempt to fabricate a disclosure date revealed bad faith conduct justifying an award
5 of attorneys' fees); (2) intentionally spoliates relevant evidence. Leon v. IDX Sys., 464 F.3d 951, 959, 6 961 (9th Cir. 2006) (intentionally deleting over 2,000 files from his employer-issued laptop during 7 his lawsuit against employer warranted dismissal of plaintiff's lawsuit and monetary sanctions
8 [attorneys' fees and costs for investigating and litigating spoliation issue]).

9 An award of expenses does not require a showing of willfulness or improper intent. Rather,
10 the standard is whether there was substantial justification for the losing party's conduct. *Reygo Pac.
11 Corp. v. Johnston Pump Co.*, 680 F.2d 647, 649 (9th Cir. 1982). In this case, there wasn't.

12 The Court retains broad discretion to control its dockets and in the exercise of that power they 13 may impose sanctions. Adams v. Cal. Dept. of Health Services, 487 F.3d 684, 688 (9th Cir. 2007);
14 Thompson v. Housing Authority of City of Los Angeles, 782 F.2d 829, 831 (9th Cir. 1986). Further,
15 "a court certainly may assess sanctions against counsel who willfully abuse judicial processes." *Fink
16 v. Gomez*, 239 F.3d 989, 992 (9th Cir. 2001).

17 Defendant incurred 5 hours in preparation of this motion ($2,750.00). Counsel's hourly rate
18 is $550.00 per hour. He anticipates another 2 hours in reviewing Defendants' opposition ($1,100.00),
19 another 2 hours in preparing a Reply ($1,100.00), and another 3 hours for attending the hearing 20 ($1,650.00) totaling $6,600.00.

21 Accordingly, monetary sanctions sought by Plaintiffs in connection with this Motion should 22 be imposed against Defendants with said amount to be made payable to Plaintiffs' attorney, within 23 ten days.

24 c. CONCLUSION

25 For all of the foregoing reasons, the Court should grant Defendant's Motion and award to 26 Defendant his attorneys' fees, costs and disbursements; and grant to Defendant any further relief as 27 to the Court seems appropriate.

5. I proudly represent Defendant Nicholas Silao.

6. This Declaration is in support of DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO ALLOW WITHDRAWAL OF DEEMED ADMISSIONS F.R.C.P. § 36(B).

7. On 11-8-2017, the Debtor Pandora Hospice Care, Inc., commenced this bankruptcy proceeding Case No. 6:17-bk-19336-SY.

8. On 10-2-2018, Plaintiff filed this adversary action entitled: Karl T. Anderson against Nicholas Silao. Adversary case 6:18-ap-01193 [Doc-1]

9. On 10-31-2018, Defendant, represented by Sanaz S. Bereliani filed an Answer to the Complaint [Doc-4].

10. On 1-2-2019, the parties filed a Joint Status Report [Doc-5]. Of particular interest, in Section A4 of the Joint Status Report the parties acknowledged that they did not meet & confer pursuant to LBR 7026-1.¹⁶

10], the discovery cutoff was 6-28-2019, the pre-trial stipulation was due 8-1-2019, the ¹⁶A true and correct copy of the 1-2-2019 Joint Status Report [Doc-5] is attached hereto as Exhibit “1” and is incorporated herein by this reference.

- 1 pretrial hearing was 8-15-2019, and the mediation completion date was 7-31-2019.
- 2 12. On 3-15-2019, Defendant's counsel Bereliani moved to withdraw as counsel of record [Doc-
3 12], and on 4-16-2019, the Court entered its Order Granting Motion To Withdraw As Counsel
4 Of Record [Doc-16].
- 5 13. On 8-7-2019 at 10:42am, Defendant wrote Bereliani (copying Cohen) and demanded his file
6 from her pursuant to the California Rule of Professional Responsibility 4-100(B)4, that 7 provides that an attorney must promptly pay or deliver, as requested by the client, any funds,
8 securities, or other properties in the possession of the member which the client is entitled to 9 receive.¹⁷
- 10 14. On 8-7-2019, at 2:18pm, Bereliani wrote back: "Not much - Nick went MIA on us shortly after 11 the beginning and we just bought him time with the Tee's attorney..." and sent the following
12 12 documents: (1) The Complaint; (2) Your Retainer Agreement; (3) A Waiver of Conflict
13 of Interest for a Joint Representation signed by Nick Silao; (4) A Waiver of Conflict of 14 Interest for a Joint Representation signed by Ray Silao; (5) A Paypal receipt of Nick's
15 payment to you; (6) the Answer to the Complaint; (7) Another copy of the Answer to the 16 Complaint; (8) the filed JSR; (9) the filed Scheduling Order; (10) a blank form Substitution
17 of Attorney; (11) the Order Granting your Motion to Withdraw; & (12) the LOU receipt of 18 her Order Granting her Motion to Withdraw.¹⁸
- 19 15. On 8-8-2019, at 6:53am, I wrote Bereliani: "Thx for the prompt reply. Did Plaintiff send you 20 Plaintiff's FRCP 26 Initial Disclosures? If so, please send it. Was any discovery done in this 21 adversary? If so, please send them."¹⁹

22

23 ¹⁷A true and correct copy of Defendant's 8-7-2019 letter to Bereliani (copying Cohen)

25 is attached hereto as Exhibit "2" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

26 ¹⁸A true and correct copy of Bereliani's 8-7-2019 letter to Defendant (copying Cohen) is 27 attached hereto as Exhibit "3" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

28 ¹⁹A true and correct copy of Cohen's 8-8-2019 letter to Bereliani is attached hereto as Exhibit
29 "4" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

16. On 8-8-20189 at 8:216am, Berliani responded: "Per my previous email, there was no communication by your client so no nothing further was done. They retained me on a limited scope and were not in touch after with further instruction or guidance. I recommend calling Trustees counsel regarding case status, I'm surprised they haven't filed anything else yet. Nick got lucky."²⁰

17. On 8-8-2019 (late at night), Defendant retained me, and I filed the Substitution of Attorney [Doc-25] on 8-12-2019.

18. Before being retained, I specifically inquired of Defendant and Ms. Bereliani whether they received any discovery from Plaintiff in this adversary, whether they received a proposed Joint Pre-Trial from Plaintiff, & whether they received any FRCP 26 Initial Disclosures from Plaintiff. While Ms. Bereliani withdrew from the case in 4-16-2019, I still inquired of her too, just in case. Both Ms. Bereliani & Defendant informed me that they did not receive any of the aforementioned from Plaintiff. On that basis, I took the case.

19. I was prepared to file a declaration pursuant to LBR 7016-1(E)(2), when I checked PACER and discovered Plaintiff's Unilateral Pre Trial and Declaration filings of 8-8-2019, and was surprised, to see that Plaintiff claimed that he indeed propounded discovery to Defendant - Request for Admissions ("RFA's") and that Defendant did not respond, and Plaintiff is deeming the following admissions, admitted:

a. RFA # 4. The Debtor loaned/transferred $137,000 to Defendant, Nicholas Silao. The Debtor's 2016 Federal Income Tax Returns signed under penalty of perjury reflected the outstanding loan owed by Defendant, Nicholas Silao to the Corporate Debtor. (Unresponded to Request for Admission No. 1).

b. RFA # 5. Pursuant to the Debtor's 2016 Federal Income Tax Returns, Defendant, Nicholas Silao owes the Plaintiff/Chapter 7 Trustee no less than $137,000, plus any and all costs of collection. (Unresponded to Request for Admission No. 4).

²⁰A true and correct copy of Berliani's 8-8-2019 letter to Cohen is attached hereto as Exhibit "5" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

- 1 c. RFA # 6. Plaintiff/Chapter 7 Trustee is entitled to pre-judgment interest as provided
2 under applicable non-bankruptcy law (Unresponded to Request for Admission No. 5).
3 d. RFA # 7. Defendant, Nicholas Silao has no defenses and/or counterclaims to 4 Plaintiff/Chapter 7 Trustee's demand for $137,000. (Unresponded to Request for 5 Admission No. 6).
6 e. RFA # 8. Defendant, Nicholas Silao has no facts that dispute Plaintiff/Chapter 7
7 Trustee's entitlement to $137,000 demanded in the Trustee's Complaint.
8 (Unresponded to Request for Admission No. 7).
9 f. RFA # 9. Defendant, Nicholas Silao has no documents, notes or other writings that 10 disputes the Trustee's entitlement to $137,000 demanded in the Trustee's Complaint.
11 (Unresponded to Request for Admission No. 8).
12 g. RFA # 10. Defendant, Nicholas Silao has no witnesses that dispute the Trustee's 13 entitlement to $137,000 demanded in the Trustee's Complaint. (Unresponded to 14 Request for Admission No. 9).²¹
- 15 20. On 8-9-2019 at 6:34am, I wrote Berliani informing her that Plaintiff's Unilateral Pretrial stated 16 that he indeed propounded discovery Request for Admissions ("RFA's") to the Defendant, that 17 Defendant did not respond to, and that they are now deemed admitted. I asked Berliani why
18 wasn't I given copies of this discovery?"²²
- 19 21. On 8-9-2019 at 12:17pm, Berliani responded: "Ps I'll speak to my office regarding receipts
20 of anything on their end but please note we were retained specifically for an answer and joint 21 status report and conference. We had no further involvement or guidance. Lastly, I appreciate 22 your professionalism going forward."
- 23 22. On Friday 8-9-2019 at 11:22am, I wrote Plaintiff's counsel to meet & confer regarding

27 ²²A true and correct copy of Cohen's 8-9-2019 letter to Berliani is attached hereto as Exhibit 28 "7" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

- 1 Plaintiff's Unilateral Pre Trial [Doc-23] and Declaration [Doc-24] in advance of the 2 upcoming Pre Trial hearing of 8-22-2019.²³
- 3 23. Specifically, I asked Plaintiff's counsel: (1) to see Plaintiff's F.R.C.P. 26 Initial Disclosures;
4 (2) to See Plaintiff's Discovery; (3) to show Plaintiff that Defendant has evidence to dispute
5 Plaintiff's turnover claim for $137,000.00; & (4) to seek clarification regarding Plaintiff's
6 efforts to meet & confer with Defendant regarding the Joint Pre-Trial Report.
- 7 24. On Sunday 8-11-2019, Plaintiff's counsel emailed me stating: "Thanks for your email. Please
8 know I will not litigate this matter via email, thus if you believe your client is entitled to relief
9 from the Court, please file a properly noticed motion pursuant to the Local Bankruptcy Rules.
10 Consequently, at this point we are proceeding in the ordinary course pursuant to the Court's
11 presently set scheduling order. Finally, if you intend to proceed with any type of judicial 12 relief, please note I'll be traveling to and from Shanghai China for my son's college freshman
13 activities between the afternoon of August 22 and returning to the OC on or about August 29,
14 2019, thus we will object to any relief that requires my office to take action during that time
15 period. Thank you."²⁴
- 16 25. This was a strange response to my meet & confer letter of 8-9-2019 for the following reasons:
17 a. Regarding my simple request to see Plaintiff's F.R.C.P. 26 Initial Disclosures, I asked
18 counsel whether he met & conferred and served the Defendant, with Plaintiff's 19 F.R.C.P. 26 Initial Disclosures, and if he did, to please send Cohen a copy, because 20 as the Court knows, F.R.C.P. 26(d)(1) prohibits discovery before the parties have met
21 & conferred as required by F.R.C.P. 26(f). Further, as the Court knows, F.R.C.P. § 22 26(a)(1)© requires a plaintiff to make the initial disclosures at or within 14 days after 23 the parties' Rule 26(f) conference. In Plaintiff's 1-2-2019 Status Conference Report
24

25 ²³A true and correct copy of Cohen's 8-9-2019 meet & confer letter to Plaintiff's counsel is 26 attached hereto as Exhibit "8" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

27 ²⁴A true and correct copy of Plaintiff's counsel's email of 8-11-2019 is attached hereto as 28 Exhibit "9" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

1 [Doc-5], Section A4 of the Joint Status Report the parties acknowledged that they did
2 not meet & confer pursuant to LBR 7026-1, and Plaintiff pledged to meet and confer
3 by 1-17-2019. Plaintiff's Initial Disclosures were due by 1-31-2019. So I inquired
4 whether Plaintiff met & conferred before or after the 1-17-2019 date. So I merely 5 asked to see Plaintiff's compliance with his F.R.C.P. 26 Disclosures requirement. To 6 my surprise, rather than simply send them to me, Plaintiff stonewalled me with his 7 non-response of 8-11-2019. So I had no copy of Plaintiff's F.R.C.P. 26 Initial 8 Disclosures to work from.

- 9 b. Regarding my simple request to see Plaintiff's discovery, I informed Plaintiff that 10 Defendant informed me that he does not recall receiving any discovery from Plaintiff, 11 let alone RFA's, and inquired whether Plaintiff's discovery was propounded before or 12 after the 6-28-2019 Discovery Cutoff date? And if so, to please provide me with 13 copies of the propounded discovery so that I can respond to them. I also asked that 14 Plaintiff stipulate to withdraw the deemed status and allow Defendant to respond to 15 them. To my surprise, rather than simply send them to me, Plaintiff stonewalled me
16 with his non-response of 8-11-2019. So I did not have a copy of Plaintiff's discovery 17 to work from.
- 18 c. Regarding my simple request for clarification regarding Plaintiff's efforts to meet &
19 confer with Defendant regarding the Joint Pre-Trial Report, I reported to counsel that 20 his Declaration in support of the Unilateral Pre Trial states that "On or about July 22,
21 2019, I called the telephone number listed on the adversary proceeding docket's cover
22 page and left a message, but no return call; or email was received by Defendant 23 Nicholas Silao," and that Defendant informed me that he does not recall receiving any 24 such telephone call from Plaintiff. I expressed to counsel concern with Plaintiff's
25 claim of a 7-22-2019 telephone call, because as the Court is aware, LBR
26 7016-1(b)(1)© requires that the parties must meet and confer at least 28 days before
27 the date set for pretrial conference, the pretrial hearing was 8-22-2019, and the 28-day 28

- 1 meet & confer deadline was 7-5-2019, meaning that Plaintiff's attempted meet & 2 confer of 7-22-2019 was not timely.
- 3 d. I expressed to Plaintiff my additional concern with why his declaration fails to state
4 that he emailed the proposed Joint Pre Trial to Defendant that is listed in the Order
5 Granting Bereliani's Motion to Withdraw as Counsel of Record [Doc-16] and in the 6 PACER docket nsilao@aol.com?
- 7 e. I expressed to Plaintiff my additional concern with Plaintiff's Declaration in support
8 of the Unilateral Pre Trial that states: "On or about July 29, 2019, my office sent 9 Defendant Nicholas Silao at the address listed on the adversary proceeding docket via 10 Federal Express delivery the Joint PreTrial Stipulation." I informed counsel that 11 Defendant claims and insists that he does not recall receiving any such Joint Pre Trial 12 Stipulation, and I requested that Plaintiff provide me with his 7-29-2019 letter, the 13 FEDEX slip, and the proposed JPS of 7-29-2019. To my surprise, rather than simply 14 send them to me, Plaintiff stonewalled him with his non-response of 8-11-2019. So I 15 had no copy of Plaintiff's Joint Pretrial that he allegedly sent to work from.
- 16 26. Regarding the last point of my letter to demonstrate that Defendant has evidence to dispute
17 Plaintiff's turnover claim for $137,000.00, that he has witnesses and exhibits re same, I
18 produced these documents to counsel sight unseen, without the Plaintiff having to formally 19 demand them from Defendants to substantiate Defendant's claim that he has exhibits to 20 support his defense:
- 21 a. RFA # 4. The Debtor did not lend $137,000 to Defendant. The facts will reveal just 22 the opposite: My client lent Pandora $442, 00.00.
- 23 b. RFA # 5. Defendant does not owe the Plaintiff $137,000 (plus any and all costs of 24 collection).
- 25 c. RFA # 6. Plaintiff is not entitled to pre-judgment interest as provided under applicable
26 non-bankruptcy law.
- 27 d. RFA # 7. Defendant, Nicholas Silao has defenses to Plaintiff's demand for $137,000,
- 28

1 as raised in Defendant's Answer [Doc-4]. Again, the Debtor did not lend $137,000 to
2 Defendant. The facts will reveal just the opposite: My client lent Pandora $442,
3 00.00.

4 e. RFA # 8. Defendant has facts that dispute Plaintiff's entitlement to $137,000
5 demanded in the Trustee's Complaint.

6 f. RFA # 9. Defendant has documents, notes or other writings that dispute the Plaintiff's
7 entitlement to $137,000 demanded in the Trustee's Complaint.

8 27. Regarding the exhibits, Cohen presented to Plaintiff:

9 a. Pandora's loan report to the Silao brothers reflecting that during the period of 12-16-
10 2013 - 5-20-2015, Defendant lent Pandora approximately $442,000.00 (and that his 11 brothers Michael Silao lent Pandora $70,000.00, Sam Silao lent Pandora $6,000.00, 12 & Ray Silao lent Pandora $143,911.37, totaling $662,411.37).

13 b. The last page of Pandora's 2014 tax return (FYE 12-31-2014) Form 1120, Page 5, 14 Schedule L, Line 19, entitled: "Loans from Shareholders" showing that my client was 15 owed $389,750.00 by Pandora for that year ("Loan Payable N Silao");

16 c. The last page of Pandora's 2015 tax return (FYE 12-31-2015) Form 1120, Page 5, 17 Schedule L, Line 19, entitled: "Loans from Shareholders" showing that my client was 18 owed between $389,750.00 - $297,250.00 by Pandora for that year ("Loan Payable 19 N Silao");

20 d. Pandora's Balance Sheet as of 12-31-2015, under the section entitled: "Liabilities &
21 Equity" reflecting "Loan/Financing Payable N. Silao $297,250.00;

22 e. The last page of Pandora's 2016 tax return (FYE 12-31-2016) Form 1120, Page 5, 23 Schedule L, Line 19, entitled: "Loans from Shareholders" showing that my client was 24 owed between $297,250.00 - $295,250.00 by Pandora for that year ("Loan Payable N
25 Silao");

26 f. Pandora's (9) checks to my client that contain the notation: "Reimbursement - Loan:"
27 i. Pandora's 7-31-2015 check # 9001 to Defendant for $25,000.00;

- 1 ii. Pandora's 9-4-2015 check # 9002 to Defendant for $25,000.00 contains the 2 notation: "Loan Repayment;"
3 iii. Pandora's 9-15-2015 check # 1112 to Defendant for $2,500.00 contains the 17 28. Regarding the witnesses, I disclosed to counsel: RFA # 10. Defendant has witnesses that 18 dispute the Trustee's entitlement to $137,000 demanded in the Trustee's Complaint:

19 Defendant; the other Silao brothers; Pandora's CPA Rufino Reyes Magpayo.
20 29. My letter recommended that the parties push "reset" on this case: (1) so that Plaintiff can 21 provide me with all of the above-requested documents; (2) to stipulate to withdraw the 22 deemed admissions; (3) to allow Defendant to respond to Plaintiff's discovery; (4) to allow 23 Defendant to participate meaningfully to the Joint Pre Trial report; & (5) to stipulate to 24 continue the pre-trial to a mutually agreeable date. I concluded that I believe that the Court
25 would prefer to try the case on the merits rather than granting the Plaintiff defaults against an 26 in proper defendant based on the above. I was even so bold as to suggest that since Plaintiff's 27 case appears to be solely predicated on a 2016 tax return, that upon Plaintiff verifying the 28

1 Defendant's evidence, that the Plaintiff consider dismissing this adversary complaint. I truly
2 believed I was being completely reasonable and practical, given the situation that I found
3 myself in. My requests to see Plaintiff's Initial Disclosures, Discovery, and proof of his meet 4 & confer compliance, are completely legitimate, not being made for any improper⁴ purpose.
5 One would think, that a Plaintiff would agree to produce the aforementioned and stipulate to 6 continue the pretrial - especially in light of his late compliance with LBR 7016-1(b)(1)© - to 7 allow the defendant to participate meaningfully in his defense. Instead, and to my surprise,
8 rather than simply send them to me, Plaintiff stonewalled me with his non-response of 8-11-9 2019.

- 10 30. On 9-4-2019, I wrote Plaintiff again. " am writing you to meet & confer regarding: (1) the 11 proposed Joint Pre Trial Stipulation; (2) the proposed Motion in Limine, & (3) the proposed 12 Motion to Withdraw the Deemed Admissions pursuant to F.R.C.P. § 36(b). As I wrote you 13 on 8-9-2019, I'm running blind here, because I do not have: (1) Plaintiff's F.R.C.P. 26 Initial
14 Disclosures; & (2) Plaintiff's written discovery including Plaintiff's Request for Admissions
15 ("RFA's"). Both Ms. Bereliani and my client informed me that they do not have copies of 16 them. Accordingly, please provide them to me. If I do not receive them from you, I will have 17 no choice but to file the proposed motions. As I indicated in Defendant's 8-12-2019 Unilateral
18 Pre-Trial Report [Doc-28], Defendant intends to file a Motion in Limine to exclude Plaintiff's 19 evidence at trial, based on Plaintiff's failures to comply with FRCP 26. Your cooperation in 20 providing me with the requested documents will impact greatly on whether I will file the 21 Motion in Limine or not. I also indicated that Defendant intends to file a Motion to Withdraw 22 the Deemed Admissions pursuant to F.R.C.P. § 36(b), based on my client's representation that 23 he never received Plaintiff's (alleged) Request for Admissions. Please advise if Plaintiff will 24 stipulate to withdraw the deemed admissions and I will gladly prepare the stipulation and 25 order. To expedite the process, enclosed please find Defendant's Verified Response to 26 Request for Admissions that is based on Plaintiff's Unilateral PreTrial Report that identified 27
28

the six (6) Requests for Admission.²⁵

2 31. On 9-11-2019, Plaintiff responded: "Baruch, I never received a response from you last week
3 regarding the Meet and Confer issues noted in your 9/4/11 faxed letter. I had proposed a 4 "Meet and Confer" telephone call for Friday September 6, 2019 but never heard back from 5 you. Secondly, I don't understand the legal effect if any of the verified responses included with 6 your 9/4/19 fax. Rather, I've enclosed the RFAs that were properly served on your client's
7 former counsel at her address of record in the above-captioned Adversary proceeding. Thus 8 pursuant to F.R.C.P. 36 (made applicable to this Adversary Proceeding per Rule 7036 of the 9 Fed Rules of Bankr Procedure) the unresponded to RFAs are still, enforceable and we intend 10 to use them until there's a court order to the contrary. Any questions or comments, please let 11 me know. thanks." Plaintiff attached a copy of an RFA.²⁶

32. On 9-11-2019, I responded: "Tom: I do not recall you proposing, and me accepting, a proposed meet & confer with me on 9-6-2019. But I'm happy to do so immediately. I also want to state emphatically, that Berliani did not share your RFA with me, and that Nick Silao swears over a stack of bibles that he never received them. Finally, I need to see your Initial Disclosures. As I'm sure you know, F.R.C.P. 26(d)(1) prohibits discovery before the parties have met & conferred as required by F.R.C.P. 26(f). If you did not do a F.R.C.P. 26 Initial Disclosure, the RFA's would be improper. If you did do a F.R.C.P. 26 Initial Disclosure,

²⁵ ²⁶A true and correct copy of Plaintiff's counsel's email of 9-11-2019 is attached hereto as accuse Plaintiff's counsel of forging the Request for Admission, one can easily be generated, and backdated, without any independent way of verifying that it is authentic. Of particular note is that Plaintiff presented no proof that the RFA was actually mailed to Berliani.

please provide it to me. I've now asked you for this twice.”²⁷

33. On 9-11-2019 I wrote Berliani informing her that Plaintiff sent me an RFA that purports to have been served on her office on 3-7-2019 at your address "Sanaz S. Berelian, Berelian Law Firm, 11400 W. Olympic Blvd., Suite 200, Los Angeles, CA 90064. On 3-15-2019, she moved to withdraw as counsel to Defendant. So she must have had the 3-7-2019 RFA's in her file before she moved to withdraw on 3-15-2019. Yet, she did not produce it to Defendant or to me in violation of Rule 4-100(b)(4). I was very concerned that she had this RFA in her file and did not produce it when Defendant demanded it. So I asked her again: "Did Plaintiff send you Plaintiff's FRCP 26 Initial Disclosures? If so, please send it. Was any discovery done in this adversary? If so, please send them." I was very concerned that now the RFA's are deemed admitted, and Defendant will now have to spend money to file a Motion to have the Deemed Admissions Withdrawn, which he should not have to do, had she forwarded to him the RFA's when you received it on 3-7-2019.²⁸
 34. On 9-12-2019, I spoke with Berliani, who represented that the only documents she had in her file were those that she forwarded to me earlier. When pressed again whether she had the RFA in her file and whether she had Plaintiff's FRCP 26 Initial Disclosures, she repeated again, that the only documents she had in her file were those that she forwarded to me earlier.
 35. On 9-17-2019, I wrote Plaintiff's counsel to meet & confer and sent him a Proposed Joint Stipulation in Connection with Defendant's Motion to Allow Withdrawal of Deemed Admissions F.R.C.P. § 36(B) ("Proposed Joint Stipulation").²⁹

7 39. On 11-27-2019 I wrote Plaintiff's counsel to meet and confer by telephone, which we did on 8 12-5-2019. All things being equal, I explained to Plaintiff's counsel the above, and pointed 9 out that if Plaintiff failed to issue FRCP 26 Initial Disclosures that he would have entitled him
10 to conduct discovery. I asked Plaintiff's counsel several times in the meet & confer

16 41. Plaintiff's counsel only contributed to the Statement of Facts, and did not contribute to the 17 Arguments of Law and Conclusion, and did not offer a Declaration.

18 42. Bottom line, Plaintiff has still not produced to me Plaintiff's FRCP 26 Initial Disclosures that 19 would have entitled him to conduct discovery, despite being asked for this document at least

SUPPLEMENTAL DECLARATION OF
ATTORNEY SANAZ SARAH BERELIANI
DECLARATION RE DEFENDANT'S
MOTION TO ALLOW WITHDRAWAL OF
DEEMED ADMISSIONS F.R.C.P. 36(b)

I, Sanaz Sarah Bereljani, hereby declare as follows:

1. I am the former attorney for the Defendant, Nicholas Silao, in the herein Adversary.

Complaint filed in the Debtor's Chapter 7 bankruptcy case. I am admitted to practice law before this Court and all Courts in California and am a member in good standing. I have personal knowledge of the facts and if called upon as a witness, I could and would competently testify hereto in a court of law.

Case 6:18-ap-01193-SY Doc 31-1 Filed 09/25/19 Entered 09/25/19 10:59:10 Desc Exhibits Page 130 of 141

- 1 2. I was retained in this matter by the Defendant on October 30, 2018, for the purpose of filing an
- 2 Answer to an Adversary Complaint. As the Answer was due imminently, the Defendant and I
- 3 agreed that after the Adversary Complaint Answer was filed, we would re-negotiate the
- 4 retainer agreement as needed.
- 5 3. The Adversary Complaint Answer was filed on October 31, 2018.
- 6 4. I emailed the Defendant on January 2, 2019 to confirm how he wanted to proceed with regards
- 7 to representation and the progression of the adversary proceeding.
- 8 5. Shortly thereafter I spoke to the Defendant and was informed that the Defendant's mother
- 9 passed away. As a result, the Defendant was not able to proceed with any activity or
- 10 communication regarding the case until family matters were resolved. I advised Mr. Polis,
- 11 attorney for the Plaintiff of this on or about January 2019. I further advised the Defendant that
- 12 a joint status report must be filed, and an appearance at the joint status conference was
- 13 required.
- 14 6. I was then retained for the purpose of filing a Joint Status Report and an appearance at the Joint
- 15 Status Conference. After this, I was not successful in getting in touch with the Defendant.
- 16 7. On February 11, 2019, I emailed the Defendant, advising him that because of the lack of
- 17 communication and since he had not contemplated further representation, I was not able to
- 18 proceed as I could not respond on behalf of the Defendant since I did not know the further facts
- 19 of the case or preferred game plan of the part(ies). I provided him with a Substitution of
- 20 Attorney to review and sign.
- 21 8. At this time, on or about February 2019, I communicated with the Plaintiff that I planned on
- 22 withdrawing from the case due to the breakdown in communications.
- 23 9. For one month, my office followed up with the Defendant in regards to my email and Motion
- 24 to Withdraw to no avail. I never heard back from him. My last attempt was on March 13, 2019,
- 25 when I called and left a message for the Defendant.

10. Due to the breakdown in communication between the Defendant and I, specifically the lack of responsive communication and further retention by the Defendant, I was forced to withdraw as counsel [Docket 12] and on April 16, 2019, the Court entered its Order Granting Motion to Withdraw as Counsel of Record [Docket 16].
 11. On or about April 11, 2019 I appeared via telephonic Courtcall for the hearing on the Motion to Withdraw. At this time, the Court and Mr. Polis requested that I provide contact information for the Defendant in the Order on Motion to Withdraw, so Mr. Polis could get in touch directly with the Defendant. To the best of my recollection, Mr. Polis did not address the court regarding discovery efforts and/or requesting any extensions on time to do discovery, given the withdrawal. I was not aware of any outstanding discovery issues as of that date.
 2. On or about April 26, 2019 I caused to be filed a Notice of Lodgment with an Amended Order Granting the Motion to Withdraw. This document had the last known contact information for the Defendant.
 1. On or about August 7, 2019, I received an email from the Defendant, copying Attorney Cohen, requesting a copy of his file. The same day I forwarded him an email with 12 attachments, which include the following: (1) The Complaint; (2) Retainer Agreement; (3) A Waiver of Conflict of Interest for a Joint Representation signed by Nick Silao; (4) A Waiver of Conflict of Interest for a Joint Representation signed by Ray Silao; (5) A Paypal receipt of Nick's payment to you; (6) the Answer to the Complaint; (7) Another copy of the Answer to the Complaint; (8) the filed JSR; (9) the filed Scheduling Order; (10) a blank form Substitution of Attorney; (11) the Order Granting your Motion to Withdraw; & (12) the LOU receipt of Order Granting Motion to Withdraw.

Case 6:18-ap-01193-SY Doc 31-1 Filed 09/25/19 Entered 09/25/19 10:59:10 Desc Exhibits Page 132 of 141

1 15. On August 8, 2019, I responded: "Per my previous email, there was no communication by your 2 client so no nothing further was done. They retained me on a limited scope and were not in 3 touch after with further instruction or guidance. I recommend calling Trustees counsel
4 regarding case status, I'm surprised they haven't filed anything else yet. Nick got lucky."

6 16. On August 9, 2019, Cohen wrote me informing me that Plaintiff's Unilateral Pretrial stated that 7 he indeed propounded discovery Request for Admissions ("RFA's") to the Defendant, that 8 Defendant did not respond to, and that they are now deemed admitted. Cohen asked me why 9 wasn't he given copies of this discovery?"

10 17. On August 9, 2019 I responded: "Ps I'll speak to my office regarding receipts of anything on 11 their end but please note we were retained specifically for an answer and joint status report and 12 conference. We had no further involvement or guidance. Lastly, I appreciate your 13 professionalism going forward."

14 18. Soon thereafter communicating with Cohen, I reached out to the Plaintiff and was put in touch
15 with his legal assistant, Cristina Allen, whom I requested a copy of the alleged documents. Ms.
16 Allen forwarded to me a copy of an RFA and Roggs. I have not received any Initial 17 Disclosures from Ms. Allen or the Plaintiff at any point during the pendency of this adversary
18 proceeding and I do not believe any have been prepared or served.

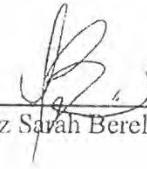

19 19. On or about September 12, 2019, after unproductive email communication with Cohen, I
20 suggested and we had a conference call to discuss the subject of the Plaintiff's discovery. I
21 advised him that in reviewing my file as of August 7, 2019 (when Defendant reached out to me
22 for a copy of his file) I did not find a copy of any propounded discovery in my possession –
23 scanned or paper versions. It is my office's protocol to save a copy of paper documents
24 received and also to email a PDF version to clients and to save an electronic version.
25 Therefore, it is my understanding and belief that I am not in possession of any discovery
26 served upon my office for the Defendant prior to August 7, 2019. The only discovery in my

DECLARATION OF NICHOLAS SILAO

I, NICHOLAS SILAO, declare as follows:

- 3 1. The facts stated below are true and correct within the best of my personal knowledge and if 4 called upon to testify to them I could and would competently do so.

5 2. I am the defendant in this case.

6 3. On 11-8-2017, the Debtor Pandora Hospice Care, Inc., commenced this bankruptcy proceeding
7 Case No. 6:17-bk-19336-SY.

8 4. On 10-2-2018, Plaintiff filed this adversary action entitled: Karl T. Anderson against 9 Nicholas Silao, Adversary case 6:18-ap-01193 [Doc-1]

10 5. On 10-31-2018, my lawyer Sanaz S. Bereliani filed an Answer to the Complaint [Doc-4].

11 6. On 1-2-2019, the parties filed a Joint Status Report [Doc-5]. Of particular interest, in Section
12 A4 of the Joint Status Report the parties acknowledged that they did not meet & confer
13 pursuant to LBR 7026-1.³⁴

14 7. On 3-15-2019, Bereliani moved to withdraw as counsel of record [Doc-12], and on 4-16-2019, 15 the Court entered its Order Granting Motion To Withdraw As Counsel Of Record [Doc-16].

16 8. On 8-7-2019 at 10:42am, I wrote Bereliani (copying Cohen) and demanded my file from her 17 pursuant to the California Rule of Professional Responsibility 4-100(B)4, that provides that 18 an attorney must promptly pay or deliver, as requested by the client, any funds, securities, or 19 other properties in the possession of the member which the client is entitled to receive.³⁵

20 9. On 8-8-2019, at 6:53am, Cohen wrote Bereliani and copied me: "Thx for the prompt reply. Did

1 discovery done in this adversary? If so, please send them.³⁶

2 10. On 8-8-2019 (late at night), I retained Cohen, who filed the Substitution of Attorney [Doc-25]
3 on 8-12-2019. Before being retained, Cohen specifically inquired of me Ms. Bereliani whether 4 we received any discovery from Plaintiff in this adversary, whether we received a proposed 5 Joint Pre-Trial from Plaintiff, & whether we received any FRCP 26 Initial Disclosures from 6 Plaintiff. I informed Cohen that I did not receive any of the aformentioned from Plaintiff. On 7 that basis, Cohen took the case.

8 11. When Cohen was prepared to file a declaration pursuant to LBR 7016-1(E)(2), when he 9 checked PACER and discovered Plaintiff's Unilateral Pre Trial and Declaration filings of 8-8-
10 2019, and we were surprised, to see that Plaintiff claimed that he indeed propounded discovery
11 to me - Request for Admissions ("RFA's") and that I did not respond, and Plaintiff is deeming 12 the following admissions, admitted:

- 13 a. RFA # 4. The Debtor loaned/transferred $137,000 to Defendant, Nicholas Silao. The 14 Debtor's 2016 Federal Income Tax Returns signed under penalty of perjury reflected 15 the outstanding loan owed by Defendant, Nicholas Silao to the Corporate Debtor.
16 (Unresponded to Request for Admission No. 1).
- 17 b. RFA # 5. Pursuant to the Debtor's 2016 Federal Income Tax Returns, Defendant, 18 Nicholas Silao owes the Plaintiff/Chapter 7 Trustee no less than $137,000, plus any 19 and all costs of collection. (Unresponded to Request for Admission No. 4).
- 20 c. RFA # 6. Plaintiff/Chapter 7 Trustee is entitled to pre-judgment interest as provided 21 under applicable non-bankruptcy law (Unresponded to Request for Admission No. 5).
- 22 d. RFA # 7. Defendant, Nicholas Silao has no defenses and/or counterclaims to 23 Plaintiff/Chapter 7 Trustee's demand for $137,000. (Unresponded to Request for 24 Admission No. 6).
- 25 e. RFA # 8. Defendant, Nicholas Silao has no facts that dispute Plaintiff/Chapter 7

1 Trustee's entitlement to $137,000 demanded in the Trustee's Complaint.

7 entitlement to $137,000 demanded in the Trustee's Complaint. (Unresponded to 8 Request for Admission No. 9).³⁷

9 12. I have evidence to dispute Plaintiff's turnover claim for $137,000.00; I have witnesses and 10 exhibits re same., I produced these documents to Cohen who produced them to Plaintiff, 11 without the Plaintiff having to formally demand them from me to substantiate my claim that 12 I have exhibits to support my defense:

13 a. RFA # 4. The Debtor did not lend $137,000 to Defendant. The facts will reveal just 14 the opposite: My client lent Pandora $442, 00.00.

15 b. RFA # 5. Defendant does not owe the Plaintiff $137,000 (plus any and all costs of 16 collection).

17 c. RFA # 6. Plaintiff is not entitled to pre-judgment interest as provided under applicable
18 non-bankruptcy law.

19 d. RFA # 7. Defendant, Nicholas Silao has defenses to Plaintiff's demand for $137,000,
20 as raised in Defendant's Answer [Doc-4]. Again, the Debtor did not lend $137,000 to 21 Defendant. The facts will reveal just the opposite: My client lent Pandora $442, 00.00.

22 e. RFA # 8. Defendant has facts that dispute Plaintiff's entitlement to $137,000
23 demanded in the Trustee's Complaint.

24 f. RFA # 9. Defendant has documents, notes or other writings that dispute the Plaintiff's
25 entitlement to $137,000 demanded in the Trustee's Complaint.
